I Jian:

That is the plan - it is obvious that you need a bridge loan. But I will provide it in a reasonable structured way. We have some leverage to structure your debts because you have no assets and those you owe money to have nothing to come after that is liquid. I will help you to figure out how to settle all of your debts.

For example, you owe $16.8k in rent which will be structured as paying monthly rent over the next few months as well as paying off the debt over an agreed upon timeframe with your landlord. There may even be an opportunity in some cases to reduce and negotiate the debt amount by offering the commitment to pay. I need the data that I requested.

This is how debts get resolved. And rather than me taking all of the personal risk, the hope is the business will grow over the next few months and relieve me from being the bank for these debt payments. This is why I need all of the detail of your debts so that I can come up with an ongoing plan and a budget. Thanks.

Regards,

Steve
